- Mozambican alluvial operational costs for the Period amounted to US$254,000 (attributable 40% to Xtract and 60% to Nexus)
- Contractors' operations continue to improve reflected in an increase in overall production
- Xtract continues to explore opportunities to work with other operators and review other concessions in the Manica and surrounding areas

Colin Bird, Executive Chairman said: "The last quarter represented the commencement of operations with its attendant set-backs and problems. The contractors solved the issues with design modifications, extraction scheduling changes and increased equipment. The operations are progressing favourably, and we expect first quarter results for the period ending 31 March 2018 to show an overall improvement in productivity and attributable income to Xtract. We have a clear mission on the opportunities presented in the district. We are highly encouraged by a positive start and industry interest in our Fair Bride hard rock project"
